1875.
INTRODUCTORY.

We take pleasure in presenting this Directory of the City of Waterbury to its residents, and especially to its merchants and business men.

Unusual care has been bestowed upon its preparation; the canvassing and proof-reading having been done by gentlemen long resident in the city, and familiar with its local characteristics.

The numbering of the streets will be found to add to the business facilities of the city, and though our labors this year have been increased by it, we trust that in the future we shall be mutually benefited.

We have prepared a Street Directory after the most approved style followed in other cities, by which the position of a given number on a street can be found very readily; in fact, the position of both streets and numbers can be found as readily as though they were on a map.

There are, doubtless, some errors, which are consequent on misapprehension of foreign names; but the fidelity of the canvass is shown in the fact that there are about twice the number of names this year than last year in this Directory, (being over 5,000.)

We sincerely thank the business men for their patronage, and all others who have assisted us by giving reliable information; and we trust it will meet with the approval of the public generally.

Yours respectfully,

PRICE, LEE & CO.
