

Lecture: “HOW TO BUILD A SUCCESSFUL CAREER AND BUSINESS IN A GLOBAL MARKETPLACE”

Book signing: A Young Adult's Guide to the Global Workplace

Meet Karen Hinds, CEO of Workplace Success Group LLC

Author of four books, including A Young Adult's Guide to the Global Workplace

Tuesday, February 7th – 6:30 pm

Silas Bronson Library Auditorium

267 Grand St., Waterbury, CT

Learn what it takes to build a solid career.

Learn how employers can create an environment that engages young employees while benefiting their bottom line.

Karen Hinds works with individuals and companies to position emerging leaders to discover, master and operate in their own distinctive power so that they can stand out and move up personally and professionally. Her clients include Frito-Lay, Harvard Business School Executive Education Program, The Bank of New York Mellon and Turner Construction. She writes a weekly business column for an international newspaper, has been featured in The Boston Globe and quoted in Black Enterprise Magazine. She has also been a guest on radio and television programs. A native of the Caribbean island of St. Vincent and the Grenadines, she is a graduate of the Boston Public Schools and Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine. She won the Micro to Millions business award in 2008