

Announcing

Silas Bronson Library's 2009 Waterbury Hall of Fame Inductees

Induction Ceremony will take place Saturday, October 24th 2:00 p.m.
Howland-Hughes Center – 120 Bank St., Waterbury, CT

Peter J. Pronovost, MD, PhD, FCM, ScD
Born in Waterbury, Connecticut
Graduate, St. Margaret School
Holy Cross High School
B.S., Fairfield University
M.D. Johns Hopkins U. School of Medicine
Ph.D. Johns Hopkins U. Bloomberg School of Public Health

John Eisenberg Patient Safety Research
Award, 2004

MacArthur Foundation Fellow, 2008

2008 Time magazine's list of "World's 100
Most Influential People" for his ICU checklist and leadership in patient safety

Founder, Johns Hopkins University Quality & Safety Research Group

Medical Director, Center for Innovations in Quality Patient Care, Johns Hopkins Hospital

Professor, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, the Bloomberg School of Public Health, and the School of Nursing

Founder, Quality and Safety Research Group, dedicated to improving healthcare through scientifically rigorous methods that are feasible at the bedside

Chairperson, Leapfrog Group's ICU Physician Staffing Committee

Chairperson, Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations'
Intensive Care Unit Advisory Panel for Quality Measures

Advisor to the World Health Organizations' World Alliance for Patient Safety

Author of more than 270 articles and chapters in the fields of patient safety, ICU care, quality health care, evidence-based medicine, and the measurement and evaluation of safety efforts

The U.S. House of Representatives' Committee on Oversight & Government Reform, released a report strongly endorsing Dr. Pronovost's ICU infection prevention program.

Barbara J. Hatcher, PhD, MPH, RN, FAAN
Born in Waterbury, Connecticut
Graduate, Driggs School
Crosby High School
B.S., Univ. of Connecticut School of Nursing MPH, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Ph.D., George Mason University

Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing

Trailblazer Award from the National Black Nurses' Association, 2008

Director, Center for Learning and Global Public Health, American Public Health Association

Chief Science Officer, Science Office, American Public Health Association

Secretary General, World Federation of Public Health Associations

Editor-in-chief, Journal of Chi Eta Phi Nursing Sorority
Editorial board member, MEDICC (Medical Education Cooperation with Cuba)
Review

Past president, District of Columbia Nurses' Association

Lead author of a commissioned white paper, Wisdom at Work: the Importance of the Older and Experienced Nurse in the Workplace

Member of the District of Columbia Army National Guard for close to 15 years
Chief nurse, 115th Combat Support Hospital and Mobile Army Surgical Hospital (MASH) in Saudi Arabia during Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm

Internationally recognized for her work as a senior policy maker, regulator and researcher in the fields of maternal and child health

Dr. Hatcher began her career as a charge nurse at Waterbury Hospital. Her subsequent work in public health nursing on the national and international level have served as a significant contribution in advancing policies and programs to improve the quality of life for women, families and communities in the United States and around the world.

