VISITING THE LIBRARY

Due to the ongoing pandemic and concerns about the new variant, we require that you wear a mask inside the library to ensure everyone's safety. We are happy to provide you with a free mask; children's masks are also available. Visit the Information Booth in the front lobby to get a mask.

You do not need an appointment to visit the library — stop by any time we are open!

WINTER WEATHER CLOSINGS

The library is usually open even when the schools are closed. Weather-related closures will be announced on our social media and website; closing alerts will also be sent to area news stations.

WINTER EXHIBITS

Our regular schedule of monthly exhibits returns this winter! Each month we will feature different local artists in our first floor exhibit spaces. Exhibits are open whenever the library is open.

In December, we will feature "Vacationing at Home: Collages from the Plague Year" by Alan Bisbort.

In January, we will feature "Reflections of Me" mixed media art and altered book art by Danna Gizzie.

In February, we will feature paintings by members of the Waterbury Senior Center celebrating Black History Month and paintings by Edith Reynolds.

Exhibits for children can be found on the second floor in the hallway display case and in the Children's Room.
