Children's Room

"This is the first installment in our series of adaptations of the beloved Narnia saga by C.S. Lewis. Step with us through the door of an old wardrobe and enter a snowy world laced with fantasy and wonder. There you will meet quite the cast of magical creatures as you accompany two intelligent and imaginative children, Lucy and Edmund, on their adventures. This delightful story is entertainment for the whole family, while still providing insight about the emotional climate of childhood during World War II. Recommended for ages 5 and up."
