ART EXHIBITS

In September and October, we'll have a special display case exhibit of artwork created by our patrons during our Tiny Art Painting Project this summer.

The gallery wall in September and October will feature paintings by Brindis Gómez, who came to this country as a teenager from the Dominican Republic. Gómez describes her paintings as a symbol of life and nature. She uses recycled materials and bright colors in her art.

Our November exhibits will feature work by Black, Latine, and Afro Latine artists, curated by the Afro Caribbean Cultural Center.

Interested in exhibiting your art at the library?
Contact us at bronsonlibrary@waterburyct.org!

BANNED BOOKS WEEK

Banned Books Week is being held October 5-11 this year and highlights the value of free and open access to information and brings together the entire book community — librarians, educators, authors, publishers, booksellers, and readers of all types — in shared support of the freedom to seek and to express ideas.

SEPTEMBER IS LIBRARY CARD SIGNUP MONTH

Start the school year right—make sure everyone in the family has their own library card! To get a card for a child, a parent or other legal guardian must bring to the library a photo ID and proof of Waterbury residency. Children must be present to get a card.

Library cards are free for all ages. If you need a replacement card, a small fee will apply. You can also download the free Acorn Catalog app to your phone. After you log into Acorn with your library card number and password, you will always have it available on your phone to use at the library.

The Friends of the Silas Bronson Library is a volunteer-run 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the library's operation and mission through fundraising, outreach, and other volunteer activities. The Friends provide vital funding for library programs, especially those for children. A contribution is made to the library each year to support public programs and services. Additionally, all sales from our Readers' Garden Bookstore go directly to the library to support programs and services.

The Friends oversee the Philip V. Benevento Fund for Cultural Programs for Adults at the Silas Bronson Library. The fund was established in 2016 in honor of Waterbury's City Historian and former Silas Bronson Library Board member Philip V. Benevento. The fund continues to grow through individual donations made to the Friends of the Silas Bronson Library and allows the library to present programs they might not otherwise be able to afford.
